Local Mail Service providers Barbara & Bob Rice Owners of "The Mail Group" and "DMS," just finished a week long class in Mail-Print and Design.

Held at the Moscone Center, San Francisco, and sponsored by the USPS the intensely structured class let to a certification at completion and testing as a "Mail Design Professional"

The course content is intended to acquaint the participant with various ways to design and prepare mail in such a way that brings the best mailing rates and value to daily business mailers.

For over 27 years now Barbara and Bob Rice have provided a discounted mailing/printing service to the Yuba Sutter area, and the management is constantly striving to find ways to best service their local clients.
